
Erasmus +

Charles University consists of 17 faculties, of which five are Faculties of Medicine. Three of them (1st, 2nd and 3rd Faculty of Medicine) are located in Prague, one is in Hradec Králové (approx. 100 km east of Prague) and one in Pilsen (Plzeň). The Faculty of Medicine in Hradec Králové is among the top Czech university institutions. It offers two English-taught undergraduate courses, General Medicine (6-year program) and Dentistry (5-year program). The Faculty also provides postgraduate education of 22 specializations.

The Erasmus+ program is co-financed from the funds of EU and the Czech Ministry of Education. The program was created with the intention to promote mutual relations and cooperation between universities in Europe. Our faculty joined the Erasmus program in 1997.

As the Faculty of Medicine in Hradec Králové (CU MED HK) organizes both the undergraduate program (Master's degree) of General Medicine and postgraduate programs also for foreign students, the official language for incoming Erasmus students is English. The curricula of the Czech and English courses are identical and in compliance with the current international standards; the courses are accredited by the EU. Incoming Erasmus students can study only General Medicine program at the Faculty of Medicine in Hradec Králové.

Erasmus+ rules are given by the European Office the Charles University Rectorate – information can be found on the Charles University website Erasmus+. You will find here updated but rather general information for all Charles University faculties. Therefore, we recommend you following the information on the website of our Faculty (see further)!

Detailed instructions can be found also in the online registration which will guide you step by step throughout the whole administrative procedure from the application to your return home.

Erasmus Data Sheet