
School of Medical Writing

Annual workshop in collaboration with Mayo Clinic Rochester.

Main target group: young doctors starting their scientific career, PhD students, postdocs.

Secondary target group: Employees, Undergraduate students

Number of participants is limited to 30.

The main speaker is Prof. Zelalem Temesgen, Mayo Clinic, Rochester, USA, who invites other guests according to the focus of the workshop.

Example of topics:

- Principles of good scientific writing
- Anatomy of great scientific paper
- Preparing and submitting grant proposal
- Preparing and publishing

See: School of Medical Writing III on You Tube.

```
<iframe type="text/html" width="480" height="295" src="//www.youtube.com/embed/RxqksGPhYRc?fs=1&rel=0&enablejsapi=1&version=3" frameborder="0" allowfullscreen></iframe>
```