

---

Center for the Support of Modern Teaching Methods

---

The Centre for the Support of Modern Teaching Methods (CPMV) is a specialised workplace providing comprehensive management of educational materials in LMS Moodle, as well as technical and methodological support for employees and students of the Faculty of Medicine in Hradec Králové in this area.

What do we offer teachers?

- complete administration of existing courses,
- creation of new courses according to the needs of the department (books, lectures, case studies, etc.),
- creation of test tasks and task bank according to the supplied materials,
- creation of tests according to the needs of the department,
- complete administration of already created tests,
- image editing, graphic design, text typesetting,
- design of the Moodle structure according to the individual needs of the department,
- individual consultation,
- regular training in the field of e-learning.