Faculty of Medicine in Hradec Králové

Order No. 6/11-12

Usage of faculty mail addresses

To increase the reliability of delivery of all e-mail messages I assign to all employees and students the following duty:

To use with an immediate effect for all electronic e-mail communication related to work and study duties exclusively an e-mail account (address) that has been created by OVT (Department of Information Technology) together with the user's account for access to the Faculty of Medicine HK network.

This is accompanied by a duty to check regularly its contents and use it in concordance with Operational Rules of the Computer Network of the Medical Faculty (Dean's order No. 3/1995).
