Conclusion
Plasmafiltration is a safe and effective method capable of extracorporeal removing of an important fraction of PLD dose after the tumor saturation with the cytostatic drug had been attained.

Address for correspondence: S. Filip, Dept. of Oncology and Radiotherapy, Charles University, Faculty of Medicine in Hradec Králové, Šumkova 870, 50003 Hradec Králové, Czech Republic, filip@fnhk.cz